Elevated high above the road, this lovely home is both unique in style and character and for the timber lovers a must to inspect. Wide wrap around verandahs on the upper level capture the cool summer breezes and enjoy a wonderful outlook through the trees and beyond. Vast open plan living zones, gorgeous timber floors and soaring cathedral ceilings throughout create that wow factor as you enter this remarkable home and the authentic wood heater in the living room adds a rustic touch.

Big country style kitchen has been recently updated with new benchtops and enjoys views to both the living areas and verandah. Family and friends will be drawn to this zone of the home to congregate as a result of the warmth and character it has to offer. Extended breakfast bar and bench tops, loads of storage, stainless steel oven & dishwasher, everything you could possibly want and more.
