HANGloosa
property noosa

You will find this special home tucked away in a beautiful and secluded laneway where a safe and peaceful family community awaits. Positioned well on a large 1034m² allotment with a northern aspect and a wonderful rainforest backdrop there is space galore here to add a pool, put up a shed, do some extensions or simply a great area for the kids to play.

The main home has a unique design, surely inspired by the surroundings with soaring, raked ceilings creating space and maximising breezes and light. An abundance of large windows throughout allows for garden viewing to be had from every room in the house, an appealing feature of this home.

Modern and spacious kitchen features stone benchtops and an enormous breakfast bar allowing for all the family to congregate and enjoy. The living area benefits from an appealing outlook to the outdoor patio area and has a relaxed and comfortable feel whilst enjoying separation from the kitchen and family zones.

A one bedroom detached Granny Flat is located at the rear of the property
- private and spacious. This home contains an independent
