HANGloosa
property noosa

Located in very popular Old Tewantin, only a short stroll to town and a stone's throw to the Noosa River, this home is deceiving from the road and therefore an inspection is a must to see what lies within.

Tucked away for privacy behind a high fence, you will be impressed upon entry with all the features this home has on offer. An inviting timber gate is the entry point, walk down the tiled pathway towards the front door and immediately be inspired by the gardens that surround you. The home is beautifully presented with modern neutral tiles flowing throughout the entire home allowing for maximum durability and easy cleaning. The kitchen is very spacious, a dream come true for the serious cook complete with stainless steel pyrolytic wall oven, induction cooktop, loads of cupboard & bench space and a gorgeous outlook of the rear gardens and inground pool. Air-conditioning in the lounge room and master bedroom allow for all year round comfort as do the ceiling fans located in some of the rooms.
