For those looking for the perfect hideaway offering privacy and the room to breathe that we all yearn, look no further.

Positioned at the end of a tree lined lane this beautiful property has several features that make it even more attractive. The home consists of 3 bedrooms plus an office which could quite easily be used as a 4th bedroom.

The driveway into the property runs between a full sized, fully fenced tennis court and a picturesque dam that has a small landing and a rustic walking bridge at the far end leading into a rainforest grotto. The dam provides pumped irrigation throughout the grounds of the property through a series of taps.

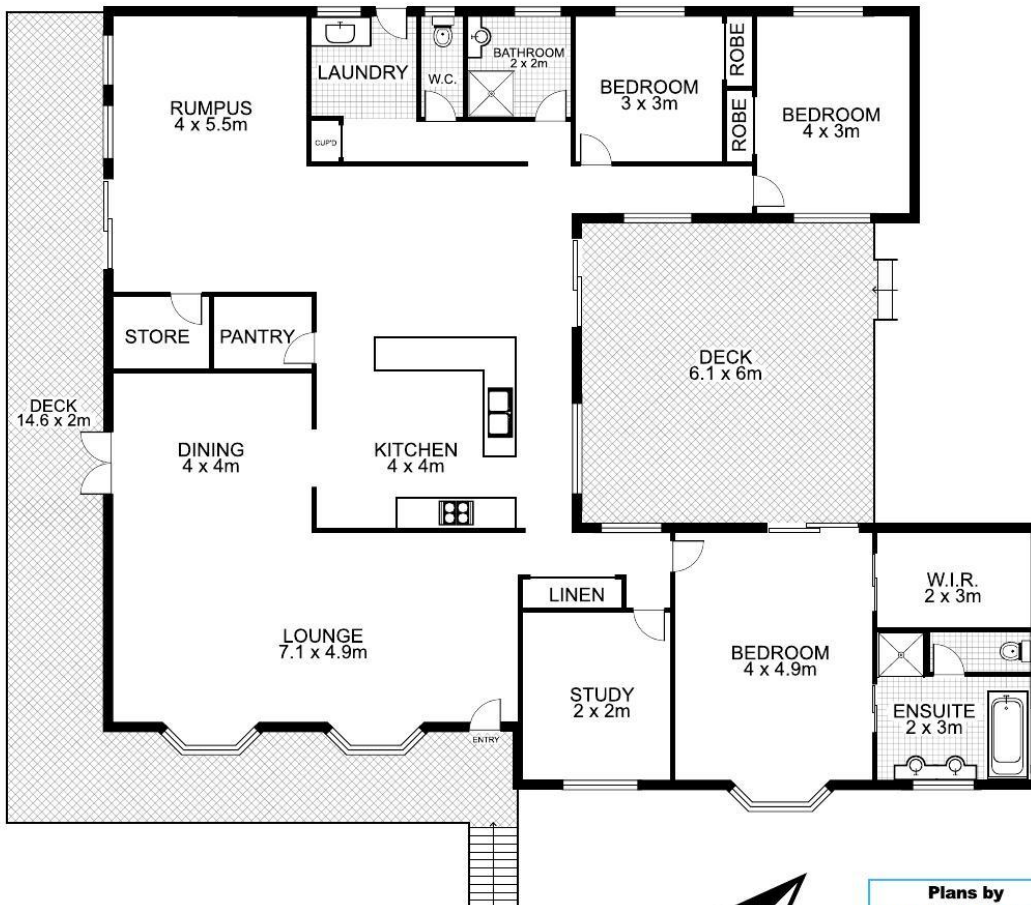

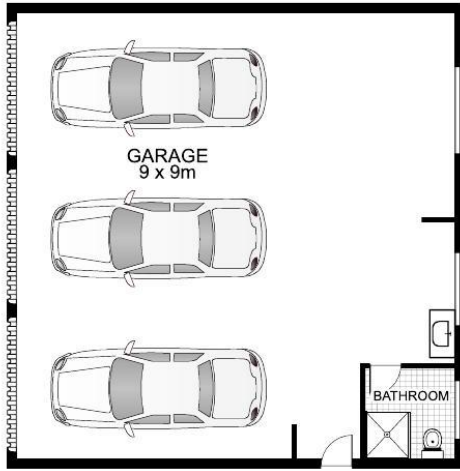

The driveway provides ample parking for visitors and has a turnaround area before the home. Further along it leads to a large 3 bay 9 x 9m shed with 2.5m roller doors. The shed has loads of shelving and roof space along with a shower, toilet and kitchen bench.
