If you have been searching for a property within short proximity to shops, public transport, golf course, local schools and the river, here is a fabulous opportunity to add to your portfolio, or simply to enjoy long term.

In an established family friendly neighbourhood and offering contemporary appeal, this inviting home showcases a functional floor plan which would suit families, empty nesters or first home buyers. Featuring two separate living zones both of which overlook the private patio, lovely garden and open space beyond, this very practical home is sure to impress. Additional highlights include a study/office, ensuited and air-conditioned master bedroom, plus 3 guest bedrooms serviced by the main bathroom and separate powder room. A double garage with internal access for convenience and solar energy to offset those rising electricity costs, add to the impressive features of this home.
