This delightful brick and tile home is superbly maintained and presented inside and out and priced well in today's market.

For those looking for space to store the caravan or motorhome this property offers good side access on a big 708m2 allotment. Positioned in the back corner you will find a large, extra high carport and beside that a double colorbond shed complete with power, water supply and remote control door.

The home is owner occupied and well loved by its current owner. It has been freshly painted on the inside only 6 months ago and features tiled living zones with vinyl timber planks installed in all three bedrooms
