Enjoy the best of all worlds! High on the hill, an updated Queenslander in a great location with plenty of potential still to go and a fully fenced garden for the kids to play, space to keep a pet and even room for a pool - there's plenty of choices available.

Upon entering the property you will take in the character of the original windows designed for privacy and to catch the breezes and the beautiful original timber flooring. With ceiling fans throughout the home comprises four bedrooms, two being upstairs with a well placed bathroom and an open plan living area incorporating the kitchen and dining room. Adjacent to the kitchen with stone bench tops and gas cook top is an elevated deck enjoying views of the surrounding treed skyline where family and friends can enjoy a barbeque.
